Tasting Notes

- ▶ With the vines coming of age and just the right amount of heat and sunshine in August and September, when the grapes needed them to ripen, the 2009 vintage allowed the Closson Chase vineyards in Hillier to produce pinots showing great balance, ripeness and elegance. We are taking advantage of this to introduce a reserve pinot bottling whose name evokes the old church that has become a symbol of our winery. A striking, fresh and intense nose of red cherry, tobacco and spice hits you right from the get go, followed by a firm, focused mouthfeel, showing plenty of beautiful red fruit and a terrific backbone, with acidity and fine yet serious tannins that will smooth out over years to come. Though it's approachable now, medium to long-term cellaring will be greatly rewarded with this structured, complex, elegant cuvée.
