- ▶ Our 2009 pinot from the Niagara shows a slightly richer, rounder feel than our Prince Edward County reds, with an almost Californian nose of plum, dark cherry, spice – and elegant floral notes wafting through as the wine opens up. The mouth shows good length and amplitude, with some interesting roasted notes and a smooth finish that makes this wine already pleasant for immediate drinking. Flavorful, easy-going, it is also worthy of a few years in the cellar.
